RUGBY

U14 B Have No Respect for Reputations

U14 B is arguably the most improved rugby side in the school this season. Superbly led by captain Tim Saxon, the squad has moulded into an outfit that fights, encourages and works tirelessly for each other. With few defeats we have taken the scalps of some notable schools such as Sedburgh and Bradford and run up some high scores such as 64 – 0 against Arnold away! The season ended with a bone crunching, nerve jangling 14 – 10 win over Fallibroome. The team does not have stars but a superb team spirit where everyone gets on efficiently with his job in the best interests of the side.

The side has won a lot of respect from supporting parents and as you will see from the photograph the team now sports a fabulous new sponsored shirt. Mr Saxon, Tim's dad, has coughed up for a set of 23 shirts with his company logo, Suttons City Living, subtly printed on one sleeve. Thank you, Mr Saxon, for your generous gesture.

Well done this season U14B and good luck, keep learning, developing and enjoying your rugby. Do not lose what you have got from this season. Always live up to the reputation you earned as a “ Shingles Silent Assassin”!!

FORMER PUPILS

Peter Moores Appointed England Cricket Coach

On behalf of everyone at King's past and present I would like to say very well done and wish him luck in such a prestigious job. We, like Pete, should be justly proud. Hopefully it will inspire all our cricketers in the school to even better and greater things. I am sure despite his busy schedule we will see him at one of our functions, such as the 150th Anniversary of Cricket dinner.

King's Old Boys Golf Day

Twenty three former pupils, old lags turned out at Macclesfield Golf Club on Friday 25 June to contest the Frank Moore Trophy over 18 holes and the Geoff Dakin Plate over 9 holes.

The weather was magnificent and so was the condition of the golf course and several members did it justice and the rest of us simply enjoyed the company and the surroundings.

Dave Miller ran away with the main competition and racked up 5 birdies over a series of 14 holes. Chairman of the Governors, Peter Broomhead, who normally appears in the prizes, did so again and won the Geoff Dakin Plate. Well done Peter and for taking your card back to your club to help for a handicap reduction. Alan McInnes with yet another steady round came a worthy third.

Macclesfield Golf Club provided us with an excellent meal for which the injured Reg Russell and Martin Thomas made the effort to turn out. It was also significant that Martin's brother Paul came along on his visit to England from the States. Paul who left in 1965 to go on to get a degree from Loughborough went on to further his studies in the States and to get a Ph.D. He is now Professor of the Division of Kinesiology and Health and Associate Dean for Research College of Health Sciences at the University of Wyoming at Laramie. Also notably Paul along the way played rugby for the USA for a number of years, one year losing narrowly to a star studded French side. Paul has promised us one of his USA shirts for showcasing at the Derby Fields pavilion.

After such an excellent day it was agreed to return to Macclesfield next year. Thanks to Alan Mc for organising and any former pupils interested in playing next year please contact Chris Shingles for details 01625 5111073.

Team of the Year

This years U12's improved greatly as the season progressed and the U15 and U14's both had fine victories. The 1st and 2nd XI both struggled after a good early start.

Senior Cricketer of the Year

Only one player really stood out in senior cricket. In recent years this award has been a close call but this year one player has stood head and shoulders above the rest with runs and wickets a magnificent fielder - Elliott Purdom.

Junior Cricketer of the Year

Many good performances Tom Foreman and Andy Hodgson and Hannah Gradwell in the U13's, Johnny Marsden, Tim Saxon in the U14's. The award goes to Alex Thomson who scored runs in the U13's and represented the 1stXI as an U13.

JD Moore Trophy (U12 Cricketer of the Year)

The U12's improved with every game with some excellent performances in the second half of the season. The Barton brothers, and the two Ben's (Saxon and Marsden) all had seasons with the award going to James Barton.
